Fr. Dominic writes: What is the Kingdom of God like? Is it like a parallel universe?

In this week's Gospel Jesus gives a description of the Kingdom. In the Kingdom, everything's pretty much the same as the world we live in right now. You're there. I'm there. You're who you are, and I'm who I am - but there are incredible differences. In this world, the poor live terrible lives. And the hungry have no one to help them. In the Kingdom the poor and the hungry are blessed, and it is the rich who are sent away with empty hands and empty stomachs. In this world, those who mourn are just what we'd expect them to be: devastated and sad and bereft of hope. But, in the Kingdom, those who mourn are happy. In the Kingdom, tears are turned into dancing.

We get things wrong when we think of the Kingdom as coming at the end of time we should think of it as the world right next to us, a "parallel" universe, existing side-by-side our own. We can flip between these universes and the passport we have is our Baptism. Jesus said the Kingdom is already here. In that Kingdom, all the poor, the hungry, the sorrowful. and the powerless are all having a wonderful time. The more we care for the poor the more real the Kingdom will be for us. The more we feed the hungry, the more visible the Kingdom will be for us. To take this fantastic journey we're going to need: a faith-fuelled imagination, a heart full of compassion, a spirit-filled readiness to share with those less fortunate than ourselves. The Kingdom isn't the "next" world - unless we mean the world "right next to us. Let's start making that Kingdom visible today.

We have just one signing session left for the certificates of Catholic Practice that you will need to accompany the applications. EU CITIZENS - SETTLED AND PRE-SETTLED STATUS

As you may be aware the Government have decided that there will be no charge to apply for settled status but if you apply before the 29th March 2019 you will have to pay it and then reclaim it. Our suggestion is that if you do not have "Permanent Residence" or "Indefinite Leave to Remain" you wait until after 29th March before you apply.

Another problem that we felt may arise is with elderly people who are EU Citizens and who may find the process difficult. The same will also apply for those with Mental Health issues or Learning Difficulties. If you are a carer or know of people in this situation please let us know and we will try to help.

We now have a group of people in the parish who are committed to keeping abreast of all the developments and hope to offer support. We do not offer advice on immigration matters, just help with understanding the rather complicated process of applying.

Any Suggestions? Suggestion boxes There are now suggestion boxes in both churches, please feel free to write down any suggestions or ideas that you may have and post in the box which will be emptied regularly. They can be anonymous or of you would like to have a chat about it, please add your name & contact number.

This is a very special Mass & people who have been in previous years have all said how much it meant to them.
