Fr. Dominic writes: Prayer, Fasting, Almsgiving - Lent in a nutshell

The word 'Lent' comes from an Old English word for 'Springtime' - a season when new life is wrested from the clutch of winter, Lent is the time for revival and renewal - the springtime of the spirit. We have all been through enough Lents to realise that complete transformation probably will not occur. But Lent is an opportunity for repair work in a specific area of our life that might need reconstruction.

Maybe you have doubts about the faith or questions about what we do as a Church. Lent is time to resolve the doubts and get some straight answers.

Maybe you have been carrying personal wounds that have been eating away at you. Lent is a time to find ways to let the healing begin.

Maybe your spiritual life has been stuck in neutral and you want to be able to pray as easily and spontaneously as Jesus did. Lent is a time to start to experience prayer.

Maybe we have noticed that you have become selfish, or inward looking. Lent may be a time when you decide to reach out to someone or some cause and donate your time or money.

This is also the time when many people decide to spring clean their homes, so Lent can be our chance to spring clean our lives - More Prayer, some Fasting and a resolution to give more to either people or causes that are in need.

Happy Lent everyone!!

Abridged version of letter from Cardinal Nichols, full version on website Shortly it will be Ash Wednesday, it marks the beginning a Lent, a time for turning again to the practice of our faith, in prayer, self-denial (fasting) and practical generosity (almsgiving). Ash Wednesday is the doorway into this season of renewal. As we cross this threshold we customarily receive ashes on our foreheads, in the sign of the cross. This is a public mark of our turning again to God, seeking his mercy, forgiveness & help. This year receiving ashes in church is going to be difficult. Yes, our churches are safe if the protective measures are fulfilled. But we must all be very careful about travelling too far. Some churches will of course be open for the celebration of Mass as usual. But I have asked them not to make extra provision for Ash Wednesday. We must be so careful & cooperative in the measures we must take, to protect ourselves & to protect others. I now want to emphasise an important point. Receiving ashes is an outward sign of an inner step, a movement of the heart towards our beloved Lord. This year I invite you to concentrate much more on this inner, spiritual movement than on its outward manifestation in the imposition of ashes. My suggestion is this:

Celebrate Ash Wednesday at home, with your family, in the household or 'support bubble' of which you are a part. Gather for a while. Read the prayer which I offer (in full version of letter). Bless each other by making the sign of the cross on each other's forehead. Spent some time praying in a way that you know. But please, make this a prayer of your heart for God's mercy upon this world struggling to cope with the terrible pandemic and the devastation it is bringing. So please do not hesitate, within your household or 'bubble', to bless each other on this Ash Wednesday. If, on this day, we set aside every pretence that we can do everything of ourselves, then we create in our hearts and lives the space for God's grace and strength to find a home in us. This is the great invitation of Ash Wednesday and of the weeks of Lent which follow. Please do take up this invitation. Open your hearts to the gift of God's presence to support, comfort and strengthen you. This year, it may be best to do this, not by going to church, but by sharing the prayer, the blessing and this moment of dedication within the love of your family.

Ash Wednesday at Home.

1. Gather together and start with the Sign of the Cross
2. Read the Gospel for today. It is from St Matthew's Gospel, 6.16 and 16-18.
3. Say together the prayer given in this Pastoral Letter.
4. Make the Sign of the Cross on each other's forehead, using the words you choose.
5. Pray together: the Our Father; the Hail Mary; each one with his or her own prayer or intention .
6. Conclude with the 'Glory be to the Father...
- 7: Give each other a sign of the peace. So Lent begins!

Daily Walk? Something positive this Lent. Could you walk 10000 Steps in one day or everyday this Lent? It could be a sign of your solidarity with all those who do not have access to a safe water source & who have to walk for water each day. Find out more at cafod.org.uk/walk & go the distance this Lent & help to end water poverty.
